Forest Hills Theatre Program Code of Conduct

1. Respect for Others
 - a. Treat all fellow cast and crew members, directors, teachers, and staff with kindness, respect, and courtesy.
 - b. Avoid any form of discrimination, bullying, harassment, or offensive language, including jokes or comments based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, or any other characteristic.
 - c. Support and encourage each other's efforts, regardless of roles or responsibilities within the production.
2. Punctuality and Commitment
 - a. Arrive on time for all rehearsals, meetings, and performances. Tardiness can disrupt the entire production.
 - b. Attend all scheduled rehearsals and performances, and inform the director or stage manager in advance if you cannot attend due to a legitimate reason - rehearsals are mandatory beginning two weeks before the show date.
3. Collaboration
 - a. Work collaboratively with your fellow cast and crew members to achieve the best possible production.
 - b. Be open to feedback and constructive criticism from directors and peers.
4. Confidentiality
 - a. Respect the confidentiality of cast lists, production details, and any other sensitive information related to the production.
5. Parental Involvement
 - a. Encourage parental support and involvement while respecting the boundaries set by the theater program and individual families.
6. School Guidelines
 - a. Students must stay within the code of conduct set by Forest Hills High School's student/family handbook.
 - b. Students must remain academically eligible in order to participate in all theater rehearsals and performances (if a student has a D or below in one or more class they will be considered ineligible until their grade is amended).

All participants, including students, parents, and staff, must review, acknowledge, and sign this code of conduct before participating in the theater program to ensure that everyone understands and agrees to abide by it for a successful and respectful high school theater program.

Musical Participant Information

Welcome to the FHC Theatre production of Something Rotten! Theatre is an experience unique among high school activities and we are excited to have you and your family be a part of it!

The following information is required for students to participate in rehearsals and productions. The Theatre Advisory Council (TAC) will use the information to send communications and enhance the student theatre experience in a variety of ways.

One of the big things we provide are a number of meals for the students during their long rehearsals, and it is important that we are aware of any and all allergies and other considerations so we can provide every student with a positive experience. Thank you for your cooperation!

In order for us to provide yard signs, shirts, and everything else we do to enhance your student's theatre experience, we ask that you submit this form by Monday, February 16, 2026. The form will be closed after that date and we will not be able to make any adjustments to orders after that date.

FHC Theatre Presents Something Rotten

March 19 – 21, 2026 @ 7:00 PM
March 21 @ 3:00 PM
FHC Auditorium

Something Rotten! is a hilarious and irreverent musical comedy that takes a fresh, modern look at the world of Shakespearean theatre. Set in the 1590s, this show follows the story of two brothers, Nick and Nigel Bottom, who are desperate to write a hit play. When they discover that Shakespeare is about to write his own play, they decide to steal the idea and write the first-ever musical. Along the way, they encounter a cast of
